

ROZÈS

PORTO

MAISON FONDÉE EN 1855

10 ANS D'ÂGE - 75cl.

Description

Rozès 10 Years Old Infanta Isabel is a rich, elegant and generous port wine. That is the reason why it has the name of a Portuguese princess from Middle Ages, known for her generosity and kindness. Aged for 10 years in oak casks at our cellars in Vila Nova de Gaia, this wine is the result of a careful selection of wines produced with the main red grape varieties from the Douro region.

Tasting notes

Appearance: Deep rich mahogany with a slight orange hue.

Nose: An harmonious nose with intense and subtle aromas of nuts, figs and raisins and some citrine orange notes.

Palate: Smooth, complex and ripe with a delicious sensation of freshness. A well-balanced and structured wine, with a light finish.

Drinking occasions

Rozès 10 Years Old is a tasting wine that makes a perfect combination with chocolate desserts, cherries and dried fruits.
